Buyer - Seller Agreement:

This puppy is of typical structure, temperament, and embodies the normal and basic standard of the breed. The purchase price that was paid for the puppy will be refunded if the buyer provides the seller with a veterinary certificate and test results (when adequate) indicating that puppy has a life-threatening virus or congenital defect, and returns puppy to seller within 72 hours of pickup/delivery. Seller is not responsible nor guarantees against non-threatening puppy issue such as slipped stifles, missing or misaligned teeth, hernias, parasites, or infertility.

We will guarantee the above puppy for one year from the day of birth from death or life-threatening condition caused by a genetic defect. An accurate diagnosis of the life-threatening genetic defect by a certificated veterinarian, all documents, and proof of the said claim will need to be sent to the buyer within one year of the birth date of the puppy. If the claim is death, all documents from certified treating veterinarian, formal autopsy and report, and cause of death will need to be submitted to the seller. If claim has occurred, met the above stated criteria, and documentation has been submitted and met the above stated criteria, then we will replace the pup with another pup of the same gender, similar coloring, or of equal value with the buyer being responsible for all further and future life-threatening conditions, sicknesses, and other related issues.

By signing both the seller and buyer are acknowledging that the information in this contract is correct and agree to the buyer - seller agreement.
